

Yakima County's Internet Mapping Advertising Acceptable Use Policy

Yakima County's acceptance of advertising is not a recommendation, endorsement or guarantee of any product or service advertised on the site or for the company that manufactures, distributes or promotes a product or service. Yakima County is not responsible for the content or accuracy of third party advertisements. In addition, Yakima County does not endorse or guarantee any content, material, products or services contained on, or accessible through, links to other Internet sites from Yakima County web mapping site.

The following is a non-exclusive list of content that are UNACCEPTABLE for advertising and advertisement links.

1. Content that contains or contains links to: nudity, pornography, adult content, sex, profanity, abusive or foul language.
2. Content that condones, promotes, contains, or links to malware, cracks, hacks, their associated utilities, or other computer piracy related information.
3. Content that promotes the sending of unsolicited email (spamming) or mail fraud schemes, or sites that promote or condone the sending of unsolicited email to individuals not affiliated with the sender.
4. Content that infringes any copyrights, trademarks, patents, trade secrets or other intellectual property.
5. Content that harasses, threatens, defames, or abuses others or is a violation of Washington's Law Against Discrimination (chapter 49.60 RCW).
6. Content that promotes or opposes ballot issues, political campaigns or candidates for any local, state or federal office or election.
