To whom it may concern

I purchased a home located at 20 2nd ave in Outlook WA. At the time, there was a family of three including a woman, her daughter and granddaughter. When I purchased the home, we were under the assumption that the house needed minor work. The measurements for the house were 31' 30', and appeared to be in good condition and only needed minor work. I believed I was going to only lift the home, set it on a foundation and add new windows. When the family finally moved out, I could better examine the house. When entering the home, the Livingroom and first bedroom were decent and only required minor work. Unfortunately, the 2nd bedroom was not as presentable, the floor had a 15-degree slope down the West/North corner of the room. The closet had a hole in it large enough to see the ground. The Bathroom had vegetation growing from the back of door, and between wall and shower. The toilet was sitting on 3 to 4 Pieces of plywood, and the Kitchen had a 30-degree slope going to the west. The sink in the kitchen was being leveled by four 2'x 4' s, and the back room drops 13in to the floor. When I contacted a contractor I was told, it wasn't worth lifting the home, because placing it on a foundation would crack the house in half. The home was not safe to live in, so I decided to get a permit and demo the home. I am now in the process of demolishing the home and clearing all derbies form the lot. I am now replacing it with a doublewide manufactured home 44/28 built 1985 to fit a single-family home. Due to these circumstances, I need the administrative adjustment, because the lot size is 100" x 50" so I am asking for S 5" P/L, E 15" P/L, N 17 "P/L. To sit a nicer newer manufactured home for a family six. The neighbors and I are applying for a vacate application from Yakima county. After contacting Yakima county, I was put in touch with a right-a-way agent who informed me that the application would more likely go through because the area is already being used for parking. By getting this adjustment approved it would not only be beneficial for me but my neighbors as well. This area is located on the East side of P/L. This is my first choice for parking, but if not approved I will place a two-car parking on the South-East corner of P/L.
